Wishing to let the people of the we requested the list for publication, undesired, thereby placing the county to extra expense in the selection of new names. This may be true, but the list is being published in many counties, nevertheless.

A Fated Building.

At about 12:30 o'clock Saturday morning the fire alarm was sounded, caused by fire being discovered in the Yackee building, occupied by Thatcher & Adams. The fire was discovered by night watchman Davis, and from all appearances the building had been set on fire by inendientaries, the fire being kindled in a basement with kerosene and coal oil.
The fire had gained considerable headway when discovered, but was speedily put out by the fire department, resulting in a damage of probably $50. This is the fourth time that Mr. Yackee has been burned out, on an attempt made to burn him out, since he has owned the lot on which his building now stands. The proper authorities will leave nothing undone to bring the guilty parties to justice, which will give them a home in the penitentiary for a period of time.

those who expect to use any oils and paints at any time during this sum-this house, investigate prices and quality, we are sure that they will be able to save money. This house not only guarantees its oils and paints, but they give references as to where they have sold them and where they have stood the most severe tests which could be applied for 10 to 15 years. In fact they can refer you to houses in about every township in the county where one or more buildings have been painted with the materials which they furnished and the best way to find out as to wither they have given satisfaction is to go and ask the parties who have bought them and used them on their buildings.

But the Tax-Payers Will Foot the Bill.

There has been some discussion as to the pay of the men while under arms in the service of the State and the probable cost per day of about 2.800 men receive $2 per day and all necessary subsistence, and the pay of officers is the same as that in the regular army for like rank. This will give colonels $9.75 per day, lieutenant colonels $8.33, majors $6.96, captains $5.58, first lieutenants $4.16 and second lieutenants $3.57. The expense for pay of officers and men amounts to $1,300 a day. It is estimated, that with the batteries and incidental expenses, not including transportation, the people are paying about $7,000 a day to add the civil authorities in the districts molested by the strikers.

GOOD

Burial of Chas. Horn ng.

Ex-County Commissioner Charles Hornung, whose death was announced last Wednesday, in 1897, was born in Bavaria on Friday, June 8th. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in Henry county, and was attended by citizens of this and adjoining counties. Mr. Hornung was probably the most prominent personage in the community in which he had lived for so many years, and his death removes from their midst forever one who had been identified with Pleasant township before it had been organized as a township.

Mr. Chas. Hornung came to Henry county with his parents in 1837, when he was fourteen years old, and settled in this county on land upon which he had lived continuously until his death. He was born in Bavaria, Germany, on the 16th of May, 1823. He was brought up on the farm, and in 1846 he started in for himself. On the 14th day of July in the same year he was married to Miss Catharine Desgranges, who survives him. The fruits of this union were eleven children, five of whom have died.

He was the founder of the town of New Bavaria, having laid it out in 1844, naming it after his native country. In addition to farming, Mr.
Hornung carried on a mercantile business and engaged extensively in manufacturing. He was at one time county surveyor and had served four terms as county commissioner during his life. He was the first postmaster of New Bavaria, which position he held for nearly fifty years, and was a Justice of the Peace for forty-two years. He held during his lifetime many other minor positions in the gift of the people.

His remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at New Bavaria, in a vault which he had built previous to his death. The bereaved companion and family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in the hour of their sorrow and great loss.

OUR SOLDIER BOYS

MARCH TO THE SCENES OF THE COAL STRIKE

BY ORDERS OF GOVERNOR Mc-KINLEY.

To Protect the Property of Railroads and Preserve the Peace of the State.

Excitement, akin to that experienced when the boys in blue took up their march Southward at the beginning of the rebellion, reigned supreme last Friday, after the news came flying over the wires calling the boys of Co. F to report immediately at Toledo, for duty in the regions of the coal strike.

The Co. had but two hours notice, to get themselves in readiness for their departure on the Wabash road, by special train, which had orders to leave the depot at 3:30 p. m.
Capt. Reynolds was equal to the immunity, and it was but a few minutes after the first bell gave the alarm call that he had messengers out in all directions notifying the members of the Co., and also the members of the Band, which had orders to accompany the soldier boys to Toledo.

Outside of a few stragglers, who followed by next train, the Co. and Band were at the depot on time, where they were greeted by an immense crowd of citizens, fathers, mothers and sweethearts, who had gathered to see the boys off safe, bid them good-by and wish them a safe journey and speedy return. They left on time and as the train pulled out many cheered, but the majority were solemn and thoughtful countenances, not knowing what might be in store for those who were being rushed to the front by order of the chief executive of the State.

Upon their arrival at Toledo they were joined by the Toledo companies, together with Battery D and the Cadeets, and all were soon on their way to Columbus, where they arrived at 11:30. Refreshments were here served the soldiers and at 1 o'clock they were speeding on their way, as fast as steam could carry them, towards the Ohio river. The 16th Regiment is stationed at Wheeling Creek, near Bridgeport, Ohio, in the hottest corner of the strike, and it is reported took to their duty like old and experienced soldiers.

Since their departure the daily papers have been sought after eagerly, and by many who had not looked through the columns of a daily for months. Every word bearing upon the 16th Regiment, the pride of the Northwest, was read and re-read, and as the dispatches contained no ill tidings of the boys, many were the hearts made glad and lightened by the reading of the news from them contained in the papers.

The cause of the boys being called out is the miners strike in southeast Ohio, where the strikers had taken possession of railroad trains, destroyed property, and defying the county authorities. Since Co. F arrived at their post of duty they have done excellent service and have been complimented upon their soldierly demeanor.

Everybody expected the boys to be home before this time, but the strike is not yet ended, and the reports from the miners are not reassuring, and the end is not yet. The miners seem very determined not to yield, although the reports comes from Columbus that a scale of prices have been agreed upon and that the miners will go to work again on Monday.

All reports received from F. Co. are encouraging, as the boys are well and none of them hurt so far. May they all return safely to their homes is the wish of everybody.
